The first dance was on September 21 to start off the new school year. Everyone grabbed their partner to dosey-doe at OA's annual fall dance and kicked up their heels. The night was filled with music, laughter and good times.

The evening began to get its groove on at 8:00 and was still movin' and groovin' until 11:00. It was the freshmen's first chance to mingle with fellow students and strut their stuff. According to Alex Lamers, "The band was very entertaining!"

The juniors were inducted in two phases. During the first phase in December, seniors gave their juniors "Class of 2009" pens. The second phase, which took place in January during Catholic Schools Week, was held in the oratory. Seniors Brandon Mensley, Aaron Brack, Kooper Kuehl, and Jeff Hertel opened and closed the ceremony with music. Senior STUCO officers gave words of wisdom, then the seniors exchanged gifts with their juniors before they all ate pizza in the cafeteria.

Catholic Schools Week

This year Catholic Schools' Week took place from January 27 to February 2. During the week students enjoyed special activities such as a performance from the Cincinnati Symphony, watching the movie Cinderella Man, Junior Induction, and a dodgeball tournament. The week was concluded with an all-school mass in which Eucharistic Ministers were commissioned and some of our faculty members were awarded for service at OA.

Oldenburg Academy's Drama Club presented The Crucible in the fall with a star-studded cast of freshman thru seniors. For many this was their first production, and for a few seasoned thespians this was just old hat. After only four weeks of rehearsal (not enough time!) the show was running wonderfully for two nights of classic drama.

There was plenty of time for the Drama Club to prepare for their spring musical which turned out to be a timeless classic. The show went flawlessly both nights, even with a little added humor that was not in the script. Directed by Terese Zins, this was one of the best attended shows in years!

Spirit Week

With Monday off for Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, the 2008 Spirit Week (sponsored by the cheerleaders) began on Tuesday with a spirit wear day for students and faculty. Wednesday brought "Class Colors Day" when students and faculty wore shirts of their designated class colors. The colors theme continued into Thursday with "Deck The Halls," a competition between classes that involved decorating their lockers and hallway in only their class color. It was no doubt that the Senior Class won with their decorations of black garbage bag curtains and prison cell bars on Mrs. Klusman's door. Their reward came on Friday: LaRosa's pizza for lunch! Also, the entire student body got to enjoy a jeans day with spirit wear. After getting pumped up with Spirit Week, Saturday brought the Homecoming Basketball Game. Although they played well, the boys' basketball team fell short to Guerin Catholic. Even with the loss, the game was exciting and intense. Before the game started, Jackie

Fitzgerald announced the Homecoming Court winners. Winners were: Freshmen: Maria Riehle & Alex Lamers

Sophomores: Olivia Eckstein & Logan Ricke

Juniors: Kristen Riebsomer & Pat Weisbrod

Seniors: Sydney McDonald & TJ Berry

At half-time the Twister Cheer Team performed a hot new routine that got the crowd cheering.

Following the game, students travelled to St. Louis School for the annual Homecoming Dance, also sponsored by the cheerleaders.

The heart-shaped balloon tunnel at the door led students into "Heart's Desire," the Valentine's Day inspired theme. Even after a loss at the game, students still danced the night away and had a great time.

Even though we were only in school a grand total of a day and a half due to snow during Fine Arts Week, we still managed to learn a lot and have amazing experiences. On Tuesday, our half day was spent dancing. Several dance instructors came to teach us a variety of dances, including Zumba, Celtic, Folk, Ballroom, Belly Dancing, and African (Nigerian) music and dance. The day culminated with a performance by the 3 Nigerian dance instructors from Cincinnati.

The Spring Concert included performances by Concert Choir, Academy Singers, Freshman Chorus and Orchestra. Selections like "Mission Impossible" and "Sweeney Todd" were performed.

Hair for Haiti

In preparation for a summer mission trip to Haiti, Ms. Tilly and Ms. Weckenbrock organized multiple fundraisers, including "Hair for Haiti." Multiple students, as well as Mr. Boyle, offered to shave their heads or legs if enough money was raised. Although they could not go on the trip, they raised over $900 to send to the people of Haiti.

Senior Mass

As the school year reaches an end, the seniors have their final mass at Oldenburg Academy. Traditionally every year the school, faculty, and community comes together and celebrates one last mass with the graduating class, and following the service there is a reception honoring the graduating seniors.

Warm-up to Walk-a-Thon

The week of Walk-a-Thon (April 14 - April 18) was spent whipping students and teachers into shape and pumping everyone up for the big 6-mile walk.

Every day, we were permitted to wear gym shorts and shoes, provided healthy meals, and given pedometers to prepare for Walk-a-Thon day on Friday, April 18th. On the morning of the Walk-a-thon, an all-school warm-up was led by Seniors Jeff Hertel and Stephen Hammoor.

On April 18th, the 2nd annual Walk-a-Thon was held. The Indiana Jones themed day was started by walking the "Hilly Six". Outdoor activities such as kickball, volleyball, cornhole, and chalk drawings were played in the afternoon. Mini carnival games were set up, too, and a healthy lunch was provided.

Havana Nights

Havana Nights turned out to be a wild success for the 2008 Promenade. The Juniors and Seniors, along with their dates, had a magical evening south of the border. This year's King and Queen were Alex Sitterding and Molly Hughes, with Prince and Princess being Quintin Frey and Lucy Glaser.

At the freshman retreat, everyone enjoyed playing games and taking the time to get away from their stressful lives at school for a day. The freshmen listened to retreat leaders speak about different subjects and tell embarrassing stories & lessons learned from their freshmen year. The retreat groups participated in a scavenger hunt, which including everything from a nun's signature to a four-leaf clover. The day was successful and fun for both freshmen and their retreat leaders.

FACULTY AND STAFF

The background is a complex, abstract collage. It features a variety of numbers (0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9) and letters (A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, Q, R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z) in different fonts and sizes. These elements are interspersed with geometric shapes like triangles, circles, and lines. The colors are muted, including shades of brown, beige, cream, and light green. The overall effect is a dense, layered composition that suggests a sense of movement and complexity.

Clubs & Organizations

Recyclones

On Mondays and Thursdays the Recyclones collect paper and bottles to deposit into the basement bins. A lot of the club's success comes from its moderator, Ms. Tilly. Save the Earth!

Academic Team

The Academic Team traditionally never practiced before meets, and this year, that tradition remained unchanged. Their meets were held at Cincinnati State every Tuesday through the winter months. Even though they did not prepare for the meets beforehand, they had a very successful season with many victories. The team's moderator was Sophomore/Senior Religion Teacher Alicia Tilly.

Above: Junior Evelyn Walker. Below: Sophomore Anna Schulte.

Art Club consists of activities from painting to tying bows for Valentine's Day cards. Members of Art Club enjoyed making crafts such as gift baskets for the holidays and painting the back drop for the Christmas and spring concerts. The back drop, in the words of Ms. Burrows is "a giant paint by number." Ms. Burrows is the director of Art Club and held meetings about every other week to do these projects.

Below: All of the art club members.

Book Club

Book club was first created in 2003 and has since then been a great interest for many of the students. Selections can be both modern and classic literature, and discussions are encouraged at the meetings that take place when a book is completed. This year, the club was moderated by junior and senior English/Literature teacher, Mrs. Stephens. Some of their selections for the year included Water for Elephants, A Clockwork Orange, The Count of Monte Cristo, The Three Musketeers, and The Chosen.

Back row: Sr. Therese Gillman, President, Mr. Joe Gressock, Principal, Mrs. Annette Hunger, Admissions Director, and Mr. Mark Fledderman, Business Manager.

The Administrative Team makes sure that our school is running in an orderly manner. Through out the year, they make important decisions to help better our school academically and spiritually.

Student Athletic Directors

First row: Merry Hetzer and Stacey Stenger

Second row: Brian Stenger, Molly Hughes, and Tina Wildman

Third row: Patrick Kolks, Athletic Director Mr. Boyle, and Rachel Wuestefeld.

The Student Athletic Directors are assistants to the athletic director, Mr. Boyle, during all of the home sporting events. Their jobs include running the scoreboard, announcing, passing out tickets, working in the concession stands and helping the referees. Mr. Boyle appreciated all of the time these student volunteers put in.

Concert Choir

Concert Choir is a group of singers from all grades. Led by Mrs. Beiersdorfer, they performed at various events, including OA's annual Spring and Winter Concerts.

Freshman Koralysa Graham and Junior Lucy Glaser sing at practice.

Success at the
Walk-A-Thon

Hard work during meetings at LaRosa's

The walkathon committee met after school once a week to plan all of the details for a successful Walk-A-Thon. They planned everything from the walk to the fun and games afterward. There were twelve members on the committee, three from each class, led by Barb Hettesheimer.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society puts in a lot of time to help their community around Oldenburg Academy throughout the school year. They have fund raisers, and help tutor students that may need help in certain subjects. Their biggest event was the annual Blood Drive, sponsored by Hoxworth Blood Center.

Math Club gets together to discuss and work out math problems that come up on all types of exams and tests. Under the guidance of Mrs. Klusman, they explore difficult problems and take tests to see how much of the information they retained from the year. Awards are given at the end of the year for the highest scores.

Tri-M

"Modern Music Masters"

President: Brie Comer
Vice President: Megan Rumpke
Secretary: Sarah Irrgang
Treasurer: Katie Werner
Historian: Brady Ripberger

Last summer, Tri-M hosted a local middle-school fine arts camp. Artists from around the area came to teach the children art and music. The day consisted of celtic art and dance, various music pieces, and some acting.

Promise To Keep

Promise to Keep is an organization where Juniors and Seniors come together to work as peer mentors. They teach students about healthy living, making choices, peer pressure, and they try to accomplish this through being role models. This year PTK members travelled to local area middle schools, promoting the importance of abstinence and waiting until marriage. Mr. Boyle was the moderator and advised the juniors and seniors.

Poetry Club

"Poetry Club focuses on expression and description through themes and poetic styles. It is a very relaxed atmosphere that challenges our free writing abilities." - President Sarah Gorman

This year, poetry club focused on discovering new themes and poetic styles while also having fun with creating their own unique poems.

Ski Club

This season, ski club braved the ups and downs of winter through melting snow, days of rain, and a blizzard or two. Skiiers and boarders also had fun facing new challenges, hard tricks, and many falls.

Prom Committee

It has been a tradition for the Junior class to organize and put on prom for the Senior class in the spring. The Prom Committee consisted of a small group of juniors who were in charge of organizing the prom and deciding on theme, colors, decorations, etc.

The colors are primarily white, light gray, and beige, with some darker gray and brown tones. There are also small green and red dots scattered throughout. The overall effect is a dense, layered composition that suggests a chaotic or overwhelming environment, possibly related to the 'Academics' theme.

Academics

Art

The Art Department consists of Art I, Art II, Art III, and AP Art Portfolio, all taught by Ms. Pamela Burroughs. Given enough time, patience, and effort, Ms. Burroughs can teach anyone to be an artist. This year, there were four AP Art students:

Kristen Bettice, Bridget Johnston, Hilary Konnersman, and Kait Nurrenburg, who completed the rigorous two-semester college course by displaying their skill and creativity through their self-decided concentrations.

Time to curl up with a book!

For the past several years, our English department has been taught by Mrs. Stephens (juniors & seniors) and Mrs.

Whitehair (freshman & sophomores). In one class period a day, these two teachers can somehow instill a lifetime's worth of knowledge into each student.

Foreign Language

OA's two Foreign Language teachers are brand new to the staff this year.

In her first year of teaching at the Academy, Ms. McKenna covers all German classes and one Spanish class.

The rest of the Spanish classes are taught by Senor Ausere, who came here directly from Spain last summer.

Freshmen and sophomores all enjoyed the time they spent in P.E. and Health Class with Mr. Gardner. They played games like kickball and volleyball in the gym. Then they learned about healthy eating habits and taking care of their bodies in the classroom.

Math

Students watch as Mrs. Grills gives notes on the projector.

Mrs. Grills sees students from every grade in her classroom throughout the day.

Sophomores concentrate on taking notes.

The OA Math Department is headed by two math professionals: Mrs. (Lothridge) Grills and Mrs. Klusman.

Mrs. Grills teaches Algebra I, Algebra II, and pre-calculus this year, but in the past she has also taught discrete math and AP calculus at OA.

In her second year of teaching at the Academy, Mrs. Klusman teaches geometry, discrete math, and AP calculus. In fact, Mrs. Klusman loves math so much, she is the moderator of Math Club, which is funded by profits made from the Lost & Found in the back of her classroom.

This year's cross-country team consisted of many new members and new runners. The effort exerted by every member was incredible. Goals were set high. All of the team members, both girls and boys set the goal to make it through the Sectional and on to the Regional, both of which were successful. Beating their personal best running times was also a universal goal of the team.

The sectional this year was held at South Dearborn, a favorite course of many of the runners. Congratulations on a great season!

The background is a complex, abstract composition. It features a light beige or off-white base, overlaid with numerous torn, layered pieces of paper in various shades of white, cream, and light brown. These layers create a sense of depth and movement. Scattered throughout the composition are various elements: large, bold, black numbers (including 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 17, and 40) and letters (including A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P, Q, R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z). Some of these characters are in a serif font, while others are more stylized. There are also small, solid-colored circles in green, red, and orange, and some faint, dotted lines. The overall effect is one of a chaotic yet organized collage, possibly representing a page from a book or a document that has been heavily edited or layered.

Yearbook Staff

This year, the yearbook was completed in a classroom setting, rather than as a club. This staff was focused on the task at hand and worked extremely hard. The end result hopefully demonstrates the dedication and hours spent on creating this book for you. The teacher/moderator was Ms. Kendra Thayer (center of "clock"). The theme for this yearbook is "Time Warp," so for our group shot, we organized ourselves to resemble a clock. We hope you all enjoy!

From the Editor

McConnell

It has been quite the year as your 2007/2008 Yearbook Editor!
It has been stressful and challenging at times, but the end result and all of the hard work made it all worthwhile.

Our yearbook staff consisted of only freshmen and seniors this year, giving us an interesting perspective while compiling this collection of photographs and high school memories. Thank you to all of the staff members who put in so much time, effort, and creativity in making this book a success. A special thanks goes to Megan and Christa for getting all of our advertisements and sponsorships together.

I hope that you truly enjoy this year's edition
*Oldenburg Academy 2007-2008: Time Warp

Colophon

The 2008 Oldenburg Academy , Volume 60 of the yearbook was printed by Jostens, Inc., 1312 Highway 48, Clarksville, TN 37040. 240 copies were printed.
The cost of the books are included with school tuition. The yearbook staff chose the theme Time Warp and the page designs. The editorial staff chose the cover. Pages were produced in Jostens' web based program Yeartech Online. Senior portraits were shot by Randy Ammick from Tri State Studios, Underclass portraits were shot by Randy Ammick from Tri State Studios, and Candid photos were taken by the yearbook staff, Jackie Fitzgerald and Randy Ammick from Tri State Studios.

Time Warp* would not have been possible without the student body and staff and administration of Oldenburg Academy. We would like to give special thanks to Ms.
Kendra Thayer, yearbook adviser. Ms. Thayer, your countless hours dedicated to this book and your patience and professionalism are greatly appreciated. We would also like to express great appreciation to Mr. Joseph Gressock for his support and wisdom.
Thank you, also, to Mr. Mark Klein for his technical support and computer expertise.
